

$5M campaign aims to improve hotel industry equity

Posted on March 2, 2021 by News Editor

The American Hotel & Lodging Association Foundation has launched a $5 million initiative to advance the status of women and racial and ethnic minorities within hospitality. “Our vision is to build an industry as diverse as the guests we serve,” said Greg Juccam, chairman of the philanthropic arm of the industry’s premier trade group.

