

Airlines promote anti-trafficking effort

Posted on February 8, 2021 by News Editor

Southwest Airlines and American Airlines aided the “It’s a Penalty” anti-trafficking campaign by airing its public awareness video on flights leading up to the Feb. 7 Super Bowl. The organization collaborates with professional athletes and providers of lodging and local transportation to raise awareness about human trafficking and exploitation.

