

ATR: Sustainability drives demand for regional aircraft

Posted on July 22, 2022 by News Editor

ATR, the largest manufacturer of regional aircraft, predicted demand for a minimum of 2,450 turboprops between now and 2042. Increased travel and pressure to upgrade to more fuel-efficient aircraft are spurring the increase, executives said.

