

Azamara Introduces Exclusive Group Travel Deal

Posted on August 30, 2023 by Cruise Editor

Azamara, a small-ship cruise line and provider of Destination Immersion experiences, has unveiled an exclusive group offer for Azamara Groups to receive a reduction of 1:12 tour conductor credits and no deposit for 90 days.

For a limited time, the company has also introduced its best affinity group deal of the year on select sailings between August 24 and November 3, 2023. Travel advisors can earn double Group Amenities Plus points to customize experiences during a group voyage, such as premium cocktail parties, private wine tastings, complimentary Wi-Fi, or specialty dining.

“As group travel is an important part of business to our travel partners, we are finding ways to make it easy to grow all groups with Azamara,” said Michelle Lardizabal, Chief Sales Officer at Azamara. “Our goal is to provide our partners with the best support, which we’ve done by adding resources to our Group Concierge team, introducing easy to work with policies, and launching this compelling offer.”

Highlighted sailings include:

11-Night Egypt & Israel Intensive Voyage aboard Azamara Journey: Sets sail from Athens, Greece on September 21, 2024 and offers three overnight stays in Alexandria, Egypt; Jerusalem, Israel; and Haifa, Israel, giving travelers plenty of time to truly immerse and dive into each destination’s local culture.

12-Night Iceland Intensive Voyage aboard Azamara Onward: With only two days at sea, travelers will discover the dramatic landscapes of Isafjordur, Skagafjordur, Akureyri, and many other vast destinations after departing from Copenhagen on July 30, 2024. Travelers can discover hidden gems, such as Torshavn, Foroe Islands and quaint Skagen, Denmark.

12-Night British Isles Voyage aboard Azamara Quest: Embarking on July 14, 2024, travelers can dig deeper to uncover the history and culture of a destination, take in the blissful mountains and waterfalls, and stroll quaint towns. The cruise features four overnight stays in Edinburgh, U.K.; Glasgow, U.K.; Belfast, U.K.; and Dublin, Ireland.
