Carnival buoyed by investment

Posted on February 22, 2021 by News Editor

Private investors have given Carnival Corp. $3.5 billion with "very favorable interest rates," which Travel Leaders Group President John Lovell says indicates a positive outlook for the travel industry. "To put [the investment] in the travel industry, and especially the leisure travel industry, really speaks well for all of us and shows a light at end of this tunnel," Lovell said.

