

CEO: Vaccine issue looms for Asia but travel's back

Posted on July 21, 2021 by News Editor

Global hospitality executive William Heinecke acts bullish about leisure travel's comeback in much of the world but warns that vaccine concerns cloud the outlook in Asia. The CEO of Minor International notes that volume has reached or approached pre-pandemic levels in some regions and is rebounding in especially hard-hit areas such as Thailand.

