

Delta adds artisan items, makes amenity kits greener

Posted on January 27, 2022 by News Editor

Delta Air Lines will begin offering amenity kits in February that include items made by artisans in the Mexican states of Oaxaca and Michoacan, supporting vulnerable communities. The carrier is also increasing its use of recycled items with its amenity offerings and eliminating single-use elements like packaging.

