

Hotel group adds voice to chorus for COVID curbs end

Posted on February 28, 2022 by News Editor

The American Hotel & Lodging Association is joining other travel-related organizations along with the US Chamber of Commerce in urging the government to drop pandemic-related restrictions on the nation's $2 trillion tourism industry. The statement, citing declines of 50% in business travel spending and 78% in international travel spending from 2019, came a day after the CDC issued new guidance easing many curbs.

