

Lawmakers propose sustainable aviation fuel tax credit

Posted on May 20, 2021 by News Editor

Legislation to create a tax credit for low-carbon sustainable aviation fuel has been introduced in the US House of Representatives. The up to $2.00 per gallon tax incentive would help spur the development and deployment of SAF.

