

Legoland Windsor building project in England advances

Posted on December 23, 2021 by News Editor

Legoland Windsor Resort in England is moving ahead with plans to build on-site accommodations on Green Belt land after the Supreme Court rejected a bid to crush the project. The development includes the construction of a woodland-themed Holiday Village with lodges, which is set to open in 2024.

