

Rental Escapes Curates Romantic Villa Collection Ideal for Destination Weddings

Posted on August 14, 2023 by Travel Editor

Luxury villa rental company Rental Escapes is now offering a collection of villas specifically for destination weddings in mind.

The new collection offers villa rentals in some of the world's most romantic destinations and offers full-service concierge assistance and amenities for a perfect wedding and honeymoon. The concierge team can arrange photographers and an officiant, private chef and more, leaving the couple to sit back and enjoy their wedding without stress.

"Our new collection of destination wedding villas represents a fusion of luxury, romance and convenience," says Willie Fernandez, chief marketing officer of Rental Escapes. "We understand that a wedding is a cherished milestone, and our aim is to make it truly unforgettable. With our dedicated concierge team working alongside the couple, we ensure that every aspect of the wedding is flawlessly executed, allowing the couple to bask in the joy of their special day."

One such destination wedding villa is Feronia. Located in stunning Florence, Italy, newlyweds can enjoy a selection of wedding venues, from the pond under old cypress trees to the large vineyard or The Duomo cathedral.

