

Southwest launches new corporate travel portal

Posted on August 16, 2022 by News Editor

Southwest Airlines has introduced its online portal for business travel, Southwest Business Assist, which provides management of travel funds, extended sustainability reporting and greater account performance insights. The airline plans to expand the platform to offer self-service features for duty of care reporting in a future update.

