

Study: Good news for small business skips hospitality

Posted on February 3, 2021 by News Editor

Hospitality and leisure are exceptions to a trend of overall stability across US small business, according to a new report from analytics firms Paychex and IHS Markit. The lagging sectors will be especially helped by the new round of Paycheck Protection Program loans and would greatly benefit from President Joe Biden's proposed $1.9 trillion stimulus package, Paychex President Martin Mucci says.
