

Tenn. legislature allows hotel tax boost for NFL stadium

Posted on April 28, 2022 by News Editor

The Tennessee legislature has voted to permit the city of Nashville to raise the local lodging tax by 1% as part of the funding for the Titans' new football stadium. The measure, which awaits Gov. Bill Lee's signature, could raise as much as $20 million a year, Nashville Convention and Visitors Corp. CEO Butch Spyridon said.

