

U.S. Senate committee faults FAA oversight of Boeing

Posted on December 14, 2021 by Business Editor

A U.S. Senate report released on Monday said the Federal Aviation Administration must do a better job overseeing Boeing Co (BA.N) and the certification of new airplanes, as well as review allegations raised by seven industry whistleblowers.

David Shepardson www.reuters.com

