

United modifies catering menus beginning in March

Posted on February 28, 2022 by News Editor

United passengers will have two new sandwich options starting in March as the airline makes modifications to both domestic and some international catering services. The Bistro On Board menu will now include a brioche BBQ bacon cheeseburger and an asiago bagel sandwich on domestic flights while international flights will again include Port wine and pre-order kosher meals.

