

United resumes service to two northeast cities

Posted on May 21, 2021 by News Editor

United Airlines will resume service in June from Washington Dulles to Ithaca, N.Y., and Manchester, N.H. “As travel continues to return this summer, we are excited to resume more flights to popular destinations,” said Ankit Gupta, the airline’s vice president of scheduling.

