

Venue change nixed in Marriott Wardman Park bankruptcy

Posted on February 11, 2021 by News Editor

A court has turned down a request from Marriott International to move the Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings for a Washington, D.C., hotel to that city. The judge ruled that no compelling reason had been given to change the Marriott Wardman Park's case from Wilmington, Del., where protection originally was sought.

