

Where the Top US Airlines Rank for In-Flight Entertainment

Posted on December 20, 2019 by News Editor

Fun Flights

The data analysis team at CableTV.com recently examined 10 of the top U.S. airlines, comparing several factors contributing to an entertaining flight, including in-seat entertainment consoles; the ability to access entertainment using a personal console such as a tablet, laptop or phone; access to USB ports or power outlets and the variety of movies, TV channels, games and music offered.
