THE CHRONOMAT IS BACK!

Originally launched in the 1980s, the Chronomat made the mechanical chronograph cool again. With its interchangeable rider tabs and the "rouleaux" or "bullet" bracelet it became an immediate success. Today, the Chronomat has been re-designed for a new era, bringing back the striking design elements that will make this iconic chronograph instantaneously recognizable on your wrist. The new Chronomat collection is now available at Breitling.com.
